PROJECTS

PikiBread - An Ecommerce Bread Store

<https://pak-piki.github.io/landing-page-piki-bread/>

(January 2023 - January 2023)

Pikibread is an ecommerce bread store that I developed using HTML, vanilla CSS, and JavaScript. The website allows customers to browse and purchase different types of bread products with ease, thanks to its user-friendly interface and intuitive navigation system.

Key Skills:

HTML, Vanilla CSS, JavaScript

Value :

Developing Pikibread allowed me to gain hands-on experience in web development and further develop my skills in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. It also enabled me to demonstrate my ability to create a functional ecommerce website using these core technologies.

Minimalism - eCommerce Clothing Store (React, Tailwind)

(April 2023 - Present)

<https://github.com/mrifadlli/my-app>

As a Frontend Developer, I was a part of the team responsible for developing the user interface of Minimalism, an eCommerce clothing store. I utilized technologies like React and Tailwind CSS to create a sleek and modern website design that aligns with the brand's minimalist philosophy. My responsibilities included designing responsive layouts, integrating payment gateways, and creating custom components. Overall, my experience working on the Minimalism project has helped me develop my technical skills and teamwork abilities, and I look forward to utilizing these skills in my future endeavors.

SKILLS

HTML, CSS, Javascript, Bootstrap , Tailwind CSS, React Js.
